Chrism Mass - Monday, April 2 -7:00 pm.

You are invited to sing in the Diocesan Choir for our annual Chrism Mass. Watch the OND and your local bulletins for dates and times of rehearsals in your area!

Notes on Triduum Liturgies

No Perpetual Exposition of Blessed Sacrament during Triduum

[Parishes or] Groups authorized to have perpetual exposition are bound to follow all the liturgical norms given in Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharist outside Mass, nos. 82-100. Under no circumstances may perpetual exposition take place during the Easter Triduum.² The Easter Triduum begins with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, reaches its high point in the Easter Vigil, and closes with evening prayer on Easter Sunday night.³

The Reception of the Holy Oils Blessed at the Chrism Mass

It is appropriate that the oil of the sick, the oil of catechumens, and the holy chrism, which are blessed by the bishop during the Chrism Mass, be presented to and received by the local parish community.

The reception of the holy oils may take place at the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday or on another day after the celebration of the Chrism Mass. The oils should be reserved in a suitable repository in the sanctuary or near the baptismal font.

The oils, in suitable vessels, are carried in the procession of the gifts, before the bread and wine, by members of the assembly.

No Good Friday Liturgy? No Transfer of Blessed Sacrament Thursday

"This rite of transfer of the Blessed Sacrament may not be carried out if the liturgy of the Lord's Passion will not be celebrated in that same church on the following day."⁴ This rubric was mistakenly omitted from the current U.S. edition (1985) of the Sacramentary, but it was restated in the 1988 Circular Letter.⁵ It is restored in a new rubric in the Roman Missal (third edition): "If in the same church the celebration of the Lord's Passion on the following Friday does not take place, the Mass is concluded in the usual way [like any Sunday Mass] and the Blessed Sacrament is placed in the tabernacle."⁶

Adoration not Exposition

The rubrics for the procession on Holy Thursday read: "The Blessed Sacrament, accompanied by lighted candles and incense, is carried through the church to the chapel of reservation, to the singing of the hymn, 'Pange lingua' or some other eucharistic song." The directives from the Congregation are very clear in this regard: "The Blessed Sacrament should be reserved in a closed tabernacle or pyx. Under no circumstances may it be exposed in a monstrance."⁷ This is also clearly understood by the rubric describing the end of the procession with the Blessed Sacrament which reads: "Then the deacon or the priest himself places the Sacrament in the tabernacle and closes the door."⁸

After the Mass of the Lord's Supper, the faithful should be [strongly] encouraged to spend a suitable period of time during the night in the church in adoration before the reposed Blessed Sacrament. Some communities have established the custom of praying compline (night prayer) as he conclusion of the time of solemn adoration.
