

The Ministry of Justice and Service

August 12-13, 2010

Sean Lansing

Coordinator for Youth Ministry Services, CMD

Justice and Service explores the foundations for fostering a justice and service consciousness and spirituality in youth drawn from Scripture, Catholic Social Teaching, adolescent development, and contemporary catechetical principles. It develops skills for creating integrated, action-learning models for the justice and service component of a comprehensive youth ministry.

The Ministry of Evangelization and Catechesis

August 14-15, 2010

Tony Pichler

Director for Lay Ministry Formation

Evangelization and Catechesis develops the foundations and practices for nurturing faith growth and Catholic identity in young and older adolescents through evangelization and catechesis. Participants will explore a variety of ways to promote a living relationship with Jesus in the lives of adolescents. Participants will experience and analyze the "postmodern" culture and develop strategies for faith formation with adolescents in a postmodern world. They will learn creative approaches for evangelization and catechesis and develop skills and methods for evangelizing and catechizing adolescents.

Overview of Program

The Certificate in Youth Ministry Studies is a ministry education program for adults in ministry with youth, ages 11-18, in both parish and school settings. It equips leaders with the knowledge, skills, practical tools and techniques needed for creative and comprehensive ministry with youth.

The program includes four courses. The primary aim of the program is to promote personal, spiritual and ministerial growth. The Certificate program is utilized in a number of ways:

- As an integrated formation program leading to a Certificate in Youth Ministry Studies.
- As an enrichment or continuing education program for veteran leaders.
- As a workshop series which can be taken on a course-by-course basis by professional or volunteer leaders.

Program Benefits:

Participating leaders will experience the following benefits:

Confidence: Participants feel more confident in their youth ministry role because they have integrated and applied the most recent and innovative theory and approaches into their own setting and responsibilities.

Competence: The comprehensive sequence of courses provides a solid foundation of theory, theology and practical approaches, which can be applied in any parish or school youth ministry setting.

Credibility: This is a nationally recognized curriculum, offered by over 30 sites and sponsored by over 50 dioceses, whose graduates are in parish, school and diocesan leadership positions all over the country.

Year Two Courses

The Ministry of Prayer and Worship

July 22-23, 2010

Robert Feduccia

General Manager, spiritandsong.com
Portland, Oregon

Prayer and Worship investigates the foundational role that prayer and worship have in fostering the spiritual growth of youth. Participants develop understandings and practical skills necessary for: (a) preparing liturgy and worship experiences, (b) fostering the prayer life of youth and preparing prayer services, and (c) understanding the role of youth retreat experiences. Participants will apply these understandings by developing a realistic and integrated approach to worship within a comprehensive ministry to youth.

The Ministry of Pastoral Care

July 24-25, 2010

Sister Carolyn Mary Coll, RSM

Counselor, Belmont Abbey College
Belmont, North Carolina

Pastoral Care explores the principles and methods of caring for young people from various cultures and for their families. The course develops an understanding of the breadth and depth of pastoral care, of family systems and adolescent development, and of the role that cultural identity plays in the development of adolescents. The goal is two-fold: (a) to promote healthy adolescent development from a pastoral care perspective, and (b) to develop preventative interventions for families with adolescents.
