

PARISH MISSION

February 2012
S	M	T	W	T	F	S
			1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22	23	24	25
26	27	28	29

Don't miss Father Joe's wonderful
Lenten Mission Holy Rosary on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings,
February 26, 27, and 28, 2012
from 6:30 to 8:00 PM.

Fr. Joe will explore the Pascal Mystery with us in a unique way
(with a little assist from our community!)

He will also incorporate his wonderful gifts of drama and song.

Don't miss it.

Hospitality and fellowship follow each evening session.

Fr. Joe Rodrigues SDS, is a member of the international religious order, Society of the Divine Savior, the Salvatorians. He is currently the National Director of SDS Vocations and Candidates. He had recently been a member of the Jordan Ministry Team working in collaboration with the Diocese of Tucson. This ministry team is an outreach to provide human and spiritual formation. Their mission is the development of lay leadership, that all baptized are called to be apostles. He also assisted with sacramental ministry at Most Holy Trinity Parish on the West side of Tucson whose focus is social justice issues. He directed and performed in a play called LINE IN THE SAND which presents all sides of the U.S. immigration issue with the hope of raising constructive dialogue toward reform for the benefit of all.

Fr. Joe has served in national leadership for his community and has ministered in a variety of capacities. He has ministered in parishes, youth detention centers, special religious education for developmentally disabled, hospital and prison chaplaincies, youth and young adult ministries, missions in the favelas of Brasil, and published articles, to mention a few. He has provided spiritual direction and pastoral counseling for many. He has given numerous parish missions, retreats, presentations, and concerts nationally and internationally from Rome to Manilla. He has developed ways to integrate his singing and dramatic skills to enrich the experience with multi-media presentations which can engage and inspire all ages.

Fr. Joe has recorded music CDs of contemporary inspirational music for all ages, Chorus of Faith, Sing Divine Fire and Desert Rain. His latest recording, The Spirit of Christmas, received national attention on radio and television. The CDs have been fundraisers for Salvatorian ministries.