

MATTERS PERTAINING TO PRIESTS/SEMINARIANS

VIII. Compensation for a Substitute Priest

- A. The following policy is established for compensating a substitute priest. The amount to be paid by the parish to a substitute for vacation and in case of sickness is $100.00 for one weekend Mass plus mileage (cf. Priests' Remuneration) and $150.00 for any other weekend Mass arrangements plus mileage.
- B. When no meals are provided for the substitute, reimbursement must be made for reasonable food expenses incurred by him.
- C. If a priest needs a substitute for an encounter weekend, the same amounts are to be paid to the substitute by the encounter group.
- D. In case of sickness, the Chancery will arrange for substitution; in case of all other weekends, the priest himself, whether pastor or parochial vicar, must arrange for his own substitute.
