March 2  Ash Wednesday

Six years ago, Cycle C, we were in the midst of the Year of Mercy. Three years ago, we were living in “Pre-COVID” time. This year we are still struggling to find a sense of balance in our daily lives. How are we doing with Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy? They certainly have been an anchor in our lives if they have become incorporated into our very way of life. Conversion is an ongoing process – lifelong and always spiraling toward eternal life and God’s reign. As mystagogues from our own Baptism, we begin this season of baptismal preparation and repentance with our end in mind.

“Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return.” Our “Gloria’s” and “Alleluias” are put on hold. We highlight the Penitential Act, perhaps by kneeling and/or by singing the tropes. These song suggestions reflect the use of Year C Scripture readings.

This is our Christian hope: in baptism, we have already died; therefore, let us respond to God’s gift of eternal life.

Gathering Song: (Antiphon) You are merciful to all, O Lord, and despise nothing that you have made. You overlook people’s sins, to bring them to repentance, and you spare them, for you are the Lord our God.

RCIA: For Candidates—Celebrate the Penitential Rite (Scrutiny) today as part of the Universal Prayer. Do you now have Elect to “dismiss” to continue breaking open the Word? They are the ONLY ones to leave the Mass (along with their catechist, of course) at this time. Candidates are members of the “faithful” by right of their baptism. They only may not approach yet the altar for Holy Communion.

4th Lent

We come to the midpoint of Lent on this Laetare / Rejoice Sunday! RCIA: Be sure to celebrate the Second Scrutiny with your Elect! Rather than a rest stop along the way, this 4th Sunday shows us what the road to conversion is made of: JOY! For penitence is not meant to be a gloomy punishment. It is not time to wallow in our sins. Nor should it lead us to resentment like the older brother had at the lavish welcome his wayward sibling received. Repentance is an invitation to be embraced by God’s mercy and delight at our return. When joy and gladness mark our hearts even as we repent, we focus our gaze not on ourselves but squarely upon God, who does not hold our trespasses against us.

Next time you sing, “Lord, have mercy,” or cry out, “Christe eleison!” remember that they are not laments. They are songs of praise that should ever be in our mouths.

Gathering Song: (Antiphon) Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast.

Gospel Verse:
“Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord.”

Procesional Song:
Six days before the Passover, when the Lord came into the city of Jerusalem, the children ran to meet him; in their hands they carried palm branches and with a loud voice cried out: Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy! O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter, the king of glory! Who is this king of glory? He, the Lord of hosts, he is the king of glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy!

Responsorial Psalm:
Psalm 22:8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24
My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

1st Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7: The Suffering Servant speaks to the weary.

2nd Reading: Philippians 2:6-11: Jesus emptied himself, and God filled this emptiness with exaltation.

Gospel Verse:
Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.
Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.

April 14        Holy Thursday

The Sacred Triduum (THREE DAYS) begins at SUNDOWN this day; the Sacred Liturgy continues without end until the SUNDOWN on Easter Sunday evening. Reception of the Holy Oils, consecrated at the Chrism Mass, may take place just before the celebration begins or immediately following the opening song. The Glory to God is sung with much elaboration and ringing of bells which then fall silent until the Glory to God is sung during the Easter Vigil. Do not be afraid to repeat your “music menus” from years past...aim for full participation using the tried and true.

Gathering Song: (Antiphon) We should glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, in whom is our salvation, life and resurrection, through whom we are saved and delivered.

Questions of the Day:
Which negative emotions am I most vulnerable to expressing in my behavior and how often do I do so?
Can I ask for forgiveness from those I’ve hurt? Will I turn to God for mercy and for the grace to change?
April 16  Holy Saturday/Easter Vigil

We continue our prayer… deepest night…our bells ring once again, loud and clear, during the singing of our Glory to God tonight!!! Great care should be taken when preparing for the Word of God this night. Our salvation’s history is not to be taken for granted. How many times do we wonder why our offspring know nothing of their faith? How well do we know our heritage ourselves? This night is not the night to take shortcuts without serious consideration of their consequences...

Exsultet:
Various Compositions: Chant, C. Walker, Kendzia, Rubalcava, Thompson

1st Reading: Genesis 1:1 – 2:2 OR 1:1, 26-31a: God created the world and saw how good it was. God looked at everything and found it very good.
Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 104:1-2, 5-6, 10, 12, 13-14, 24, 35
Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. OR
The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

2nd Reading: Genesis 22:1-18 OR 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18: Abraham offered his only son Isaac as a sacrifice to God, and it was credited to him as justice.
Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 16:5, 8, 9-10, 11
You are my inheritance, O Lord.

3rd Reading: Exodus 14:15 – 15:1: Israel passed through the Red Sea unharmed. As for the Egyptians, their horses and chariots were tossed into the sea.
Responsorial Psalm: Exodus 15:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 17-18
Let us sing to the Lord; he has covered himself in glory.

4th Reading: Isaiah 54:5-14: I, your Maker, the LORD of hosts, will establish you in justice, far from fear where no harm can come near you.
Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11-12, 13
I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

5th Reading: Isaiah 55:1-11: “All you who are thirsty, come to the water!...I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David.
Responsorial Psalm: Isaiah 12:2-3, 4, 5-6
You will draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation.

6th Reading: Baruch 3:9-15, 32 – 4:4: All who cling to God’s law will live. “Blessed are we, O Israel; for what pleases God is known to us!”
Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 11
Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

7th Reading: Ezekiel 36:16-17a, 18-28: The Lord will pour clean water over the people and give them a new heart.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalms 42:3, 5; 43:3, 4
Like a deer that logs for running streams, my soul longs for you, my God.
OR (When no baptisms): Isaiah 12:2-3, 4bcd, 5-6
You will draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation.
OR Psalm 51:12-13, 14-15, 18-19

Questions of the Day:
When was a time that my memories spurred me to actions? How did my memories affect the way I acted?
What details from today’s readings have I added to my memory and how do they help my understanding?
“Alleluia! Christ is risen!” “He is Risen, Indeed!” Consider using the Sprinkling Rite, as we celebrate our redemption, at all the Sunday Masses during the Great Sunday of 50 Days. TODAY we “skip” the Penitential Act and move straight into the Glory to God after the Sign of the Cross and Father’s greeting of Easter Joy! TODAY, the GIRM calls for the Sprinkling Rite to take place after the Homily after we renew our Baptismal Promises - a baptismal song is most appropriate during this. Think about extending this to every Sunday of Eastertime – we’ve spent 40 days highlighting the Penitential Act, recalling our need for redemption. How appropriate to spend 50 days celebrating that very gift granted through Christ’s paschal mystery…

Gathering Song: (Antiphon) I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia. You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia. Too wonderful for me, this knowledge, alleluia, alleluia.

OR
The Lord is truly risen, alleluia. To him be glory and power for all the ages of eternity, alleluia, alleluia.

2nd Reading: Colossians 3:1-4: All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven.

OR
1 Corinthians 5:6b-8: Christ our Passover is sacrificed: Out with the old, in with the new.

Easter Sequence: (Mandatory on Easter)

Christ Is Arisen RISEN KING
Christians, to the Paschal Victim (Chant, Canedo)
Secuencia de la Pascua (Montgomery)

Gospel Verse:
Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed; let us then feast with joy in the Lord.
Questions of the Week:
Have I heard the reassuring voice of the Lord? While I listen for his voice, how do I witness to the difference the Risen Lord makes in my life?

We continue to celebrate 50 Days of Easter with renewed energy and spirit! During these days, the newly baptized, the neophytes, begin to experience the world and their faith through the lens of the sacraments they have celebrated. They hone this new perception in the Sunday Masses of the Easter season. Through mystagogical preaching, homilists help these folks and ALL the faithful grasp the meaning of the sacraments and live that meaning in their lives. Keep engaging the imagination and training our gaze to see the mystery!

1st Reading: Acts of the Apostles 5:12-16: Through the work of the apostles, many signs and wonders took place among the people. People in great numbers became believers, and many sick people were cured.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

OR Alleluia.

2nd Reading: Revelation 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19: The author of Revelation had a vision of seven gold lampstands. Among the lampstands was one like a son of man.

Gospel Verse:
You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me, says the Lord; blessed are they who have not seen me, but still believe!

Gospel: John 20:19-31: One of the Twelve, Thomas, was absent when the risen Lord first appeared to the others. Later, when Thomas was with them, Jesus came and said, "Bring your hand and put it into my side…believe." Thomas cried, "My Lord and my God!"

- Have you ever experienced a miracle or something miraculous in your life?
- What is a "rejected cornerstone" in your life – something you dismissed early on but later came to realize was essential?
- The apostles in today's reading gather in "Solomon's portico." Is there a home or meeting space where you usually gather with your community? What is the benefit of having a gathering place to be and pray?

Communion Processional: (Antiphon) Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails, and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia.

May 1 3rd Easter

We continue to celebrate the Easter Season! On that seashore, over a breakfast of cooked fish and a bit of bread, our hunger is fed! Upon our own kitchen or dining room tables, what longings do we bring, with all their chaos and uneasy quiet, piled with dishes, to-do lists, and bills? At table and altar alike, Christ waits to feed our every need.

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. OR Alleluia.

2nd Reading: Revelation 5:11-14: The author of Revelation had a vision and heard the voices of countless angels who surrounded the heavenly throne. They cried, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain...to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever."

Gospel Verse:
Christ is risen, creator of all; he has shown pity on all people.

Gospel: John 21:1-19 OR 21:1-14: Peter and the disciples fished all night but caught nothing. Jesus appeared to them, telling them to cast their nets again, and immediately the nets were filled with fish. After they ate, Jesus told Simon Peter, “Feed my lambs...Tend my sheep.”

Questions for Reflection:
- Is there someone in your life worth jumping out of a boat to hug? How does it feel to know that Jesus would do this for you?
- Have you ever felt you failed at something so badly, you couldn’t possibly try it again? Viewing Peter’s transformation through this framework of overcoming what appears to be total failure, can you imagine a situation in which you might revisit your “failed” work?
- What is one example of when the Lord Jesus was your helper (as opposed to the other way around)?
- Have you ever had your grief turned into dancing? What was the “dancing”?

May 8 4th Easter

We’re about halfway to Pentecost – we continue to exult in our rebirth! It can be tempting to make church the place we go to gather with other like-minded Christians to escape the problems of the world and to experience community with people just like us. Yet true Christian community, like St. Paul’s image of the body of Christ, is diverse. We see this in John’s vision today. The throne of the Lamb is surrounded by a multitude “From every nation, race, people, and tongue”. What unifies them (and us) in worship is faithfulness to Christ in imitation of his self-sacrificial love for others. Speaking of self-sacrifice - Happy Mother’s Day!

Gathering Song: (Antiphon) The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 100:1-2, 3, 5

We are his people, the sheep of his flock. OR Alleluia.

2nd Reading: Revelation 7:9, 14b-17: The author of Revelation had a vision of a large crowd of people from every nation and race, dressed in white robes and holding palm branches before the Lamb.

Gospel Verse:
I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Gospel: John 10:27-30: “My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life...No one can take them out of my hand. My Father...is greater than all...The Father and I are one.”

Questions for Reflection:
- Have you ever been invited to participate in an activity, party, or group that makes you uncomfortable because it requires you to challenge yourself? Why did you hold reservations? Did you eventually join?
- Recall a time you turned down an opportunity to be charitable in word or deed because it would have upset your routine. (We have all done this.) Looking back on it, would you do things differently? Why or why not?
- Who is your shepherd? Is it material success? Professional gain? Social acclaim? How can you reorient your tendencies to follow Christ?
- If you were a first-century Jew, how do you think you would have reacted to Peter in the square in the first reading? Would you have listened with curiosity, suspicion, or interest?

May 15 5th Easter

We continue to celebrate the Easter Season! Resist the urge to just let the rest of the season take care of itself. The joy of these 50 days is exactly what we've been promising the newly baptized. Remember that ever since they became catechumens, they have been dismissed before the Creed. So the Easter season is their first experience of the Liturgy of the Eucharist as Christians. Sure, our Easter Vigil and Sunday Masses were stellar, and the next few Sundays were just as powerful. But these last few weeks of Easter need to impel us toward the culmination of Pentecost!!!

Gathering Song: (Antiphon) O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders; in the sight of the nations he has shown his deliverance, alleluia.

1st Reading: Acts of the Apostles 14:21-27: Paul and Barnabas proclaimed the good news in Derbe, Lystra, Antioch, Pisidia, Pamphylia, and Attalia. They made numerous disciples and encouraged them to persevere in the faith.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 145:8-9, 10-11, 12-13
I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.
OR Alleluia.

2nd Reading: Revelation 21:1-5a: John saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth were gone. Now a new Jerusalem, the holy city, came down from God in heaven, beautiful as a bride. The One on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.”

Gospel Verse:
I give you a new commandment, says the Lord: love one another as I have loved you.

Gospel: John 13:31-33a, 34-35: After Judas left, Jesus said to the others, “I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.”

Questions for Reflection:
- How did Jesus love his disciples?
- Do you feel that you love others as Jesus loves you? Why or why not?
- What is one concrete example of Jesus’ love for you in your life?
- If you were in Antioch in the first century, how do you think you would have reacted to Paul and Barnabas?

6th Easter

All Are Welcome: Today’s reading from the Acts of the Apostles briefly relates the church’s discussion, in its earliest days, on whether converts to Christianity need to follow the complete Mosaic Law in order to follow Christ. The determination was that if Gentiles ascribed to a certain few, commands, they would be “doing what is right”; the focus, then, of the rest of Acts, and to a large extent Paul’s mission of evangelization, became the Gentiles opening the church doors much wider and revealing the fullness of Christ’s salvation.

Pope Francis said in his apostolic exhortation Evangeli Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel) “The Eucharist, although it is the fullness of sacramental life, is not a prize for the perfect but a powerful medicine and nourishment for the weak.” (47). This echoes St. Ambrose, who wrote, “If, whenever Christ’s blood is shed, it is shed for the forgiveness of sins, I who sin often, should receive it often: I need a frequent remedy.” More explicitly at the end of that same paragraph, Pope Francis concludes, “[T]he Church is not a tollhouse; it is the house of the Father, where there is a place for everyone, with all their problems.”

Paul wrote, describing what was passed onto him regarding the Eucharist, “Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will have to answer for the body and blood of the Lord. A person who should examine himself, and so eat the bread and drink the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself” (1 Cor 11:27-29). The judgment on who receives worthily, in Paul’s regard, is left to that person alone and his or her relationship with God, it seems.

Too often we place artificial limits on who is welcome in our houses of worship. Too often we pass frail and human judgment on others’ worthiness when it isn’t our place to do so. The church (and the capital-C Church) always welcomes sinners, the lost, the cast aside, the ones who do not or cannot recognize their own worth because this was integral to Christ’s ministry as well.

Sometimes we can sadly apply such litmus tests to those who want to share ministry with us, and sometimes the harshest human judgments are erroneously passed from one person to another not when positions or beliefs are far apart, but when agreement on some matter is almost-but-not-quite the same. Sometimes these verdicts are reached not because of what someone believes, but because of how that person speaks or acts (or chooses not to) on those beliefs. These sorts of sad divisions must be healed, or not or cannot recognize their own worth because this was integral to Christ’s ministry as well.

It is easy to forget, in church, in ministry, that we are all on the same team! Christ himself taught that “whoever is not against us is for us” (Mark 9:40). Let us not place any artificial restrictions on who can pray, minister, teach, heal, sing, or love in Christ’s name, especially at liturgy. -Living Liturgy, Liturgical Press

1st Reading: Acts of the Apostles 15:1-2, 22-29: A controversy arose among the disciples whether or not gentile converts were to be circumcised according to Mosaic law. At a Jerusalem meeting the apostles, and the elders, guided by the Holy Spirit, decided gentiles should not be burdened by such laws.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 67:2-3, 5, 6,
O God, let all the nations praise you! OR Alleluia.

2nd Reading: Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23: An angel carried the visionary to the top of a mountain to view the holy city Jerusalem coming down from God in heaven. There was no temple because the Lord God and the Lamb were the temple.

Gospel Verse:
Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

Gospel: John 14:23-29: Jesus said to his disciples, “Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.”

Questions for Reflection:
- What area of your life currently gives you the most peace? Why do you think this is the case?
- What area of your life is in the greatest need of peace? Have you invited the Holy Spirit, by name, to enter this space? How can you ask the Holy Spirit to address this aspect of your life?
- Have you ever had a relationship or experience you know in your heart was the result of movements by the Holy Spirit? Looking at how Peter and Barnabas are guided in the first reading, how do you look for movements of the Holy Spirit in your own life?
- How does it feel to contemplate that God loves every nation equally, with the same fervor and specificity of purpose? Have you ever considered that God blesses all nations, not just the ones we call home?

ROGATION DAYS
May 27-29: these three days were formerly observed as an occasion for imploring God's blessing on the year's harvest. Blessing of Seeds at Planting Time may fittingly be celebrated on these days in rural communities. Some other day may be chosen. See “Mass at Seedtime, #27”.

May 29 Ascension Sunday

Happy Memorial Day Weekend! Some parishes give the choir a “break” during summertime...Rest is important. Even God rested! But we might rethink this practice of giving music ministers a formal break from the Sunday Mass.

One reason is that we don’t give any other ministries breaks simply because we need them! Might our practice of giving the entire choir a break from Mass actually communicate that the choir is nonessential? Second, might it teach music ministers that if they aren’t playing their instrument, adding harmonies, or singing anthems, they aren’t “doing anything” at Mass since they aren’t performing their role? But Sing to the Lord, the US bishops’ document on music in divine worship says: “When the choir is not exercising its particular role, it joins the congregation in song. The choir’s role in this case is not to lead congregational singing, but to sing with the congregation...[31]. Think about it. Maybe a break from weekly rehearsals…but still present at Mass en masse.

Only a few more days to celebrate the Resurrection. We begin in earnest to prepare for the coming of the Holy Spirit. In the Diocese of Crookston, as in most dioceses of the United States, we celebrate the Lord’s Ascension into heaven this Sunday. The Scripture readings are of that feast. This year, let us focus less on where Christ went and more on what Christ did. Christ entered heaven’s sanctuary that we might “have confidence of entrance...by the new and living way he opened for us” (Heb 10:19-20). That living way is the paschal mystery, the ongoing participation (mystagogia) in Christ’s death and resurrection that draws us into the love between the Father and the Son. Christ’s ascension gives us hope that even when everything seems lost, Christ is with us. That hope sends us to do Christ’s mission. We await the coming of the Holy Spirit. Only 7 more days of celebrating the “Great Sunday of 50 Days.”

Gathering Song: (Antiphon) Men of Galilee: why gaze in wonder at the heavens? This Jesus whom you saw ascending into heaven will return as you saw him go, alleluia.

Questions for Reflection:
- Are you continually in the temple, praising God? What would this look like in your life?
- What does the kingdom of God look like to you? How do you bring it about in your own life?
- If you were one of the apostles who watched Jesus ascend into heaven, how do you think you would react? Would you feel a loss? Would it be excitement? Would you be thrilled with the call of spreading his word to all nations?
- Have you ever felt “clothed with power from on high”? If you imagine this “power” as the presence of the Holy Spirit, what do you think it would feel like to have it physically wrap around you, like clothing?

How do you picture the Holy Spirit? We can imagine a haloed bird hovering or “tongues of fire.” We can sense the Spirit as wind in its many forms: breath, breeze, gusts, air. But how do you describe a mystery?

Today’s feast gives us a way. Let us reflect on the varied images from the Pentecost sequence. Let these shape our own language about the Spirit in our homilies and intercessions. Let them inspire us in our singing to be conspiritors – those who breathe with – in the work of the Spirit to renew the face of the earth. Let this once-a-year song arouse the ear of our heart to listen to the Spirit’s voice every day that we may truly be led to follow Christ. May all these lenses, combined with our own experience of the Spirit’s power, reveal the mystery of God’s love that has been poured into our hearts, a mystery of love no words can fully describe. Happy 50th Day of 1 Huge Sunday!

Questions for Reflection:
- What is one area of your life that can benefit from intentional renewal?
- How do you work to bring Christ’s message to those who “speak a different language” than you, perhaps in politics or career? How do you engage those who are different from you?
- Knowing that the first act of the Holy Spirit when sent to the apostles is the work of communication, how can you renew the way you speak with family, friends, and colleagues?
- Have you ever gone to Mass in another country and heard words you know so well spoken in a different language? What was this experience like?
