FIRST READING: Isaiah 35: 4-7a
“Be strong, fear not!”
RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Ps. 146: 7, 8-9, 9-10 “Praise the Lord, my soul!”
SECOND READING:
James 2: 1-5 “Did not God choose the poor to be heirs of the kingdom?”
GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:
Matt. 4:23 “Jesus proclaimed the Gospel of the kingdom and cured every disease among the people.”
GOSPEL:
Mark 7: 31-37 “He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak.”

SCRIPTURAL TOPICS: The power of God; miracles, the poor in spirit; curing of the sick; love of God.

FOCUS: Those who love God are the heirs to His Kingdom.

REFLECTION: “Drawing near to God in your mind and heart will give you power over all other movements of the soul, and power to put the enemy to shame whenever he attempts to shame you.”
Theophane the Recluse

“Don’t search for Jesus in far lands—he is not there. He is close to you. He is with you. Just keep the lamp burning and you will see him. Keep on filling the lamp with all these little drops of love, and you will see how sweet is the Lord you love.”
Mother Teresa of Calcutta

“Have you still preserved your state of spiritual warmth? It should be preserved. Its basis is humility. As soon as humility decreases, coolness enters... the Lord will allay... the Lord will give warmth, but we must do our part as well... May the Lord grant you wisdom. Read holy writings, reflect upon them, and absorb all that is useful, applying it to your life and to your soul.”
Theophane the Recluse

“Soul.”

“Applying it to your life and to your enemies, and absorb all that is useful...”

“May the Lord grant you wisdom. The Lord will give warmth, but we must do our part as well...”

APPLYING THE READINGS TO THE LITURGY: Introduce the liturgy: Let the liturgy inspire us to open our hearts to the grace of God. Let us turn away from materialism and modern idolatry so that we are not distracted from true love of God. Introduce the breaking of the bread by proclaiming that this is the food that is our source of strength and grace.

Sample General Intercessions—Introduction: My brothers and sisters, let us pray in love, let us ask God to strengthen us in our love so that we can live in the light of the Gospels:
• For those who are called to lead and serve, that they live up to the spirit of the Gospels;
• For peace among nations, that we go beyond wanting peace to creating it, in ourselves;
• For those who suffer from hunger, sickness or loneliness, that they may be comforted by the steadfastness of God's love;
• For all of us gathered here, that God will strengthen us to live the way he wants us to, in love and peace.

SUGGESTED PREFACE/PRAYER SELECTIONS:
Preface: Sixth for Sundays in O.T.
Eucharistic Prayer: Third
Prayers over the People: Sixth or Solemn Blessing: 4th for Sundays in O.T.

R.C.I.A.
• How does the church community and the liturgy help you to lead the kind of life God wants you to live?
• What do you do to help others lead Christian lives? Be aware of what is being done for your salvation, the sacrifices others are making.

SCRIPTURAL TOPICS: Suffering; Discipleship; Faith; the Cross; Son of Man.

FOCUS: “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.”

REFLECTION: “God is purity himself; nothing impure can come before him. I don’t think God can hate, because God is love and he loves us inspite of our misery and sinfulness. He is a loving Father and we have only to turn to him. God cannot hate; God loves because he is love, but impurity is an obstacle to seeing God.”

Mother Teresa of Calcutta

“He who has repented travels towards the Lord... The sight of the mind becomes clear, and the spirit, beholding God, will receive from Him the power to see and drive away everything which could put it to shame before God. Yet there are many who expect to approach God merely by outer words and deeds. They never come near.”

Theophane the Recluse

“If it is true that sin in a certain sense shuts man off from God, it is likewise true that remorse for sins opens up all the greatness and majesty of God, his fatherhood above all, to man’s conscience.”

Pope John Paul II

APPLYING THE READINGS TO THE LITURGY: Introduce the liturgy with the question of who is Jesus to us.

General Intercessions—

Introduction: My sisters and brothers, let us pray to God whose love and mercy are infinite:

- That all of us might hear the word of God and forgive and love one another as He forgiveness loves us;
- That all of us might find peace in God’s mercy;
- That all of us who have grown complacent in faith might turn to God again and be reconciled with Love;
- That all of us who profess Jesus the Christ might receive him in everyone throughout the world.

Lord’s Prayer: 3rd suggested introduction

Prayers over the People: Second

R.C.I.A.

Jesus told his followers to take up the cross and follow him. Whatever happens in our lives, there is always an opportunity for compassion and love. This is our cross, to take up what life dishes up to us, with joy, in as much as possible, and in the ways of Jesus.

The Liturgy Planner • www.TheLiturgyPlanner.org
FOCUS: Jesus picked up a child and said “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be last... Whoever receives me, receives not me, but the One who sent me.”

REFLECTION: “If you should ask me what are the ways of God, I would tell you that the first is humility, the second is humility and the third is still humility. Not that there are no other precepts to give, but if humility does not precede all that we do, our efforts are fruitless.”

St. Augustine

“People are influenced in their actions by undercurrents of self-seeking. ... All seems to go well with them as long as everything turns out in accordance with their wishes, their plans; but when their wills are thwarted, they lose their balance and get angry ... ” Let awareness of our own self-seeking lead us to live a humble life following the teachings of Christ.” Thomas à Kempis

APPLYING THE READINGS TO THE LITURGY: Introduce the liturgy by stating that the humble are often besieged by enemies, but the Lord upholds their lives. Dedication to service could be demonstrated by a special ceremony at the presentation of the gifts. Invite children up to the altar for the consecration as a sign of our desire to include them in our spiritual lives.

Sample General Intercessions—

Introduction: My beloved brothers and sisters, may all who follow Christ devote themselves to humility. Let us pray to God, who elevates the humble:

- For all those who gather in the Holy Spirit of God, that he will help them to be faithful to the call of the gospel;
- For peace among nations, that God may instill humility into the hearts of world leaders;
- For the aged who suffer from loneliness and infirmity, that we will sustain them by our lives;
- For all of us gathered here, that God will help them to be humble.

Preface: 2nd or 6th for Sundays in O.T.

R.C.I.A.

Humility involves simplicity, and willingness to yield. To be humble is not merely to be simple and childish. It is to have respect for those with whom we live, to see God in all people at all times.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word

Mother Teresa did not receive fame by wealth or power, by athletic skill, or political position. On the contrary, she became known for her dedication to helping the poorest of the poor in India. She was great because she was willing to serve everyone. By serving others, caring for their needs, for love of God, we become great in the most important way.

The Liturgy Planner • www.TheLiturgyPlanner.org
First Reading: Num. 11: 25-29 “Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people of the Lord were prophets!”

Responsorial Psalm: Ps. 19: 8, 10, 12-13, 14 “The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.”

Second Reading: James 5: 1-6 “Your wealth has rotted away.”

Gospel: Mark 9: 38-43, 45, 47-48 “Whoever is not against us is for us.”

Scriptural Topics: Love; the Omnipotence of God; Service

Focus: “Whoever is not against us is for us.” Jesus was not jealous of another person teaching in his name, as long as that person preached the gospel. Christians must love one another, even those of another tradition.

Reflection: “You seek the Lord? Seek, but only within yourself. He is not far from anyone. The Lord is near all those who truly call on Him. Find a place in your heart, and speak there with the Lord.” Theophane the Recluse

The time is always ripe for re-union. Divisions between Christians are a sin and a scandal, and Christians ought at all times to be making contributions to re-union, if it is only by their prayers.” C.S. Lewis

The entire life span of men is very brief when measured against the ages to come, so that all our time is nothing in comparison with eternal life. Everything in the world is sold for what it is worth, and someone trades an item for its equivalent. But the promise of Life Eternal is purchased for very little.” St. Therese of Lisieux

Applying the Readings to the Liturgy: Introduce the liturgy by stating that all those who love Christ, whether they are Lutherans, Baptists, or whatever, are our brothers and sisters.

Sample General Intercessions—Introduction: My beloved brothers and sisters, may all who follow Christ devote themselves to loving humility. Let us pray to God, who elevates us all:

- For all those who gather in the Holy Spirit of God, that he will help them to be faithful to the call of the gospel;
- For peace among nations, that God may instill humility into the hearts of world leaders;
- For the aged who suffer from loneliness and infirmity, that we will sustain them by our lives;
- For all of us who love Jesus, that God will lead us all closer to him and to eternal blessing.

Eucharistic Prayer: Fourth

Introducing the breaking of the bread: This bread, the body of Christ, strengthens us to see God in all people.

Concluding Rite—Prayers over the People: 2 or 20

R.C.I.A.

What can you do to lessen aggression amongst Christians? For one thing, we can all quit saying negative things about each other. Let us look at the life of St. Francis as a model of how to live in the world.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word

St. Francis is patron saint of the natural world. He talked to birds and animals about God’s love.

He brought Christianity closer to the people by preaching in the streets and in the countryside. His message was one of faith, love, poverty and joy. He founded the Franscan Orders, and was canonized in 1228.

Canticle of the Creatures (excerpts)

O most high, almighty Lord God, to you belong praise, glory, honor and all blessing!

Praised be You my Lord, for your magnificence; for your heavenly greatness; for your majesty above the heavens.

Praised be You for Sister Sun, who brings us the day and who shines with great splendor.

O Lord, he signifies You to us!

Praised be You, my Lord, for our Brother Sun, who brings us the light; fair is he and shines with great splendor.

O Lord, he signifies You to us!

Praised be You, my Lord, for Sister Moon and for the stars, clear and lovely in the heavens.

Praised be You, my Lord, for the brother the wind, and for air and cloud, calms and all weather by which you uphold life in all creatures.

O Praised be You, my Lord, for our Sister Bodily Death, from whom no one escapes...

R.C.I.A.

God is always with us, guiding us to a new land, a land of love and peace, where we will finally all love one another.

We can’t always recognize God in our midst, because we make life very complicated and we make God out to be a complicated change of our lives. It is no more complicated than the effort it takes to converse with someone, be it a friend or a stranger. You improvise all day long without knowing it. Receiving grace from God is like improvising, you must trust in your instincts and always prepare for the moment, whenever that may be.

First Reading:
Wis. 7:7-11 “In comparison to wisdom, I held riches as nothing.”

Responsorial Psalm:
Ps. 90 “Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing with joy!”

Second Reading:
Heb. 4:12-13 “The word of God discerns the thoughts and intentions of the heart.”

Gospel:
Mk. 10:17-30 or 10:17-27 “Go and sell whatever you have and come follow me.”

Scriptural Focus: Way of Christ; Wisdom; Love; The Word of God.

Focus: “Go and sell whatever you have and come follow me.”

Reflection: “Anyone who has the light to understand what I mean and the grace to follow it will experience indeed, the delight of the Lord’s playfulness. For like a father frolicking with his son, he will hug and kiss one who comes to him with a child’s heart.”

Anonymous, The Cloud of Unknowing

“He didn’t say you won’t have problems, you won’t have to work, you’ll never get sick. He said you won’t be overcome.”

Juliana of Norwich

“The gift which we have received from Jesus Christ in holy baptism is not destroyed, but is only buried as a treasure in the ground. And both common sense and gratitude demand that we should take good care to unearth this treasure and bring it to light. This can be done in two ways. The gift of baptism is revealed first of all by a painstaking fulfillment of the commandments; the more we carry these out, the more clearly the gift shines upon us in its true splendour and brilliance. Secondly, it comes to light and is revealed through the continual invocation of the Lord Jesus, or by unceasing remembrance of God, which is one and the same thing. The first method is powerful but the second is more so; so much so that even fidelity to the commandments receives its full strength from prayer. For this reason, if we truly desire to bring to flower the seed of grace that is hidden within us, we should hasten to acquire the habit of this exercise of the heart, and always practice this prayer within it, without any image or form, until it warms our mind and inflames our soul with an inexpressible love towards God and men.”

St. Gregory of Sinai

Applying the Readings to the Liturgy:
Prayers for the displaced, the homeless, the immigrants, the strangers in our midst, would be appropriate.

Penitential Rite
Third form with eighth set of sample invocations—

Opening Prayer:
Alternate General Intercessions—

Introduction: My brothers and sisters, God is the source of eternal nourishment. Let us pray to God, whose gifts are without limits:

- For the Church of God: that we may joyfully proclaim and live our faith in Christ the eternal gift from God;
- For peace and well-being of the whole world, that God’s gift to us in this life will lead us to salvation in the life to come;
- For those who suffer from hunger, sickness, or loneliness: that the gift of Christ’s presence bring them health and peace;
- For our community and our families, who welcome Christ into their lives: that they learn to receive him in the poor and suffering people of this world.

Preface: First or eighth preface in Ordinary time

Prayers over the people: Eighth or Solemn Blessing in Ordinary time: Fifth

R.C.I.A.:

The Christian faith, along with other faiths, is a conscious decision to live the way God tells us to live, in peace and harmony with all His Children.

It is a continuing movement away from being self-centered to being centered on God.

- The gospel calls the man to go give his possessions to the poor? What is most important in your life. Is it the things you have or the spiritual, fleeting things?

Giving up the self to the poor is most important. In this we are opening up to the Divine, we learn to live the Divine Way, taught to us by God.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word

To follow the ways of God is to never get too preoccupied with the things in this world. The things are for our enjoyment, not for us to become slaves to.

FOCUS

The Son of Man; Faith; Hope; Trust

SCRIPTURAL FOCUS:

The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for many.

REFLECTION:

ANYWAY

People are unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered.

Love them anyway

If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives.

Do good anyway

If you are successful, you win false friends and true enemies.

Succeed anyway

The good you do will be forgotten tomorrow,

Do good anyway

Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable,

Be honest and frank anyway

What you spent years building may be destroyed overnight,

Build anyway

People really need help but may attack you if you help them,

Help people anyway

Give the world the best you have and you'll get kicked in the teeth,

Give the world the best you’ve got anyway

Graffiti at the children’s home, Missionaries of Charity, Calcutta

APPLYING THE READINGS TO THE LITURGY:

Introduction to the Liturgy:

The mystery of the Incarnation is presented here in clear terms. We had fallen into sin, and one of us had to atone for our sin. That one of us was Jesus, true man and true God. This pure, divine person ransomed us so that once again we were pure enough to be in the presence of God. To imitate Christ, to be dedicated to him, is to be of service to all.

Sample General Intercessions—Introduction:

Gathered together in Christ as sisters and brothers, let us pray to God and thank him for his great mercy in sending us his son as a ransom:

- For the holy Church of God: that our focus remain spiritual;
- For peace among nations, that we may rid our hearts and the world of violence;
- For all of us gathered here, that God will teach us to use wisely the good things he has given us, that they will lead us ever closer to divine love.

Preface:

First for Sundays in O.T.

Introduce the breaking of the bread by saying this bread gives us the essential grace and strength to live up to the ideals of the gospel.

Concluding Rite—Prayers over the People:

2, or 20

R.C.I.A.

- If we desire high position and authority in the church, we are not suited for it. Instead, we must desire to help people, to love them.
- The position at the right hand of Jesus is not his to give. It must be earned by the disciple.
- This is the essence of Christian morality. To be great we must love with humility.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word

Jesus said he did not come here to be served, but to serve, and we must do the same. We must serve God by helping the poor and sick, by being kind to everyone, by making others happy. Can you do that? Sure you can, with a little practice. Try making people happy - you’ll like it.

Children’s Liturgy of the Word
Our coming together for Church, and participating in the liturgy, builds up our faith by inspiring us to know and love God. Who is the God we worship? Why do we worship him?

APPLICATION OF THE READINGS TO THE LITURGY: Introduction to the Liturgy: It is not only the eyes of the blind that need to be opened. We as a community need faith so that we can see. Let the liturgy strengthen your faith.

Penitential Rite: Third form with second set of sample invocations.

Sample General Intercessions—Introduction: My brothers and sisters, God heals us through faith. Let us pray to God not only for ourselves but for all humankind:

• For the Holy Church of God, that the Lord guide it; may he restore sight to those of us blinded by greed, pride, and delusion;

• For all young people throughout the world: that their idealistic efforts be guided by faith;

• For all our sisters and brothers in need; may we have faith in the Lord and help them like he said to do;

• For ourselves and our community, may we all develop the faith necessary to see God.

Introduce the profession of faith with the idea that through God’s grace we receive faith, and yet it is ultimately up to us as individuals to act on that grace by living the way Jesus told us to live.

Preface: Seventh for Sundays in O.T.

Concluding Rite—Prayers over the People: 2 or 9

R.C.I.A.

• What does the first reading say about the people of God? The Israelites were taken away in slavery, and the Lord in his mercy brought them back. It is the Lord who saves us from death.

• In what ways have you been healed of blindness? Or have you? Please accept that we all make mistakes, even you, and allow yourself to see.

Every real Christian must always remember and must never let himself forget, that it is indispensable for him to be united with Our Lord the Saviour in his whole being; to let the Lord dwell in his mind and heart, and to live according to His most holy life. The Lord took our flesh, and we must take His flesh and His all-holy Spirit, accepting them and holding fast to them for ever. Only such a union with Our

FIRST READING: Rev. 7: 2-4, 9-14 “I saw an immense crowd, beyond hope of counting, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language.”
RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps. 24 “Lord, this is the people that long to see your face.”
SECOND READING: 1 John 3: 1-3 “We shall see God as he really is.”

FOCUS: “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall see mercy.” St. Bernard of Clairvaux

SCRIPTURAL TOPICS: Mercy; Peace; Assembly; Blessings; Love; Humility; Kingdon of Heaven; for they shall see mercy.”

REFLECTION: “Do not be afraid to be holy.” Pope John Paul II

APPLICATIONS TO THE LITURGY: The beatitudes proclaim those blest by God and destined for sainthood are the humble and merciful. Not the rich, not the socially prominent. Not the intelligent. Focus on common bond of humanity with the saints. Introductions could focus on connection between the spirit of the beatitudes and the spirit of sainthood.

General Intercessions—
• For all who have dedicated themselves to the Lord, that in their poverty they find the richness of communion with the Holy Spirit;
• For peace among nations, that world leaders see the necessity of putting the value of life over material gain;
• For all those who suffer from loneliness, especially the aged, that we may share the wealth of God’s love with them; For all of us gathered here, that we may move ever closer to God, the fountain of all blessings.

R.C.I.A.
What is a saint? Who is a saint? What do we mean by saint? Who comes to your mind when you think ‘saint’? Qualities all saints share include a great love of God, a heart full of mercy for all His Creatures, humility, wisdom... What other qualities would you expect in a saint? Are you a saint? Of course you are. Let your holiness shine out!

Children’s Liturgy of the Word
What is a saint? Ask the children what they know about saints. St. Joseph, St. Peter, St. Teresa of Avila, the Little Flower, and Mother Teresa of Calcutta are popular with children.

The saints have no need of honor from us; neither does our devotion add the slightest thing to what is theirs. Clearly, if we venerate their memory, it serves us, not them. But I tell you, when I think of them, I feel myself inflamed by tremendous yearning.” St. Bernard of Clairvaux

APPLYING THE READINGS TO THE LITURGY: Introduction to the Liturgy: God washes away our tendency towards self-indulgence and false pride. Let us be like the widow in today’s gospel and give from our need rather than from our surplus. Sprinkling rite or Penitential rite: Third form with fifth set of sample invocations Sample General Intercessions—Introduction: My brothers and sisters, let us pray to God, that we may bring the seeds of the gospel to bloom on earth:
• For all of us who gather in the Holy Spirit of God, that we may be faithful to our baptismal call;
• For all the peoples of the world, that we may all rid our hearts of violence;
• For the aged who suffer from loneliness and infertility, that we may sustain them by our love;
• For each of us, may we all be ready with hearts full of love when the Lord comes.
Preface: Second preface in O.T.
The Lord’s Prayer: See fourth sample invitation Prayers over the people: Fifth or Solemn Blessing in Ordinary time: Fourth or fifth.

• What does today’s psalm say about the poor and oppressed?
• What is your response to the oppression of others? Do you pray for the oppressor?

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time: Cycle B

FIRST READING:
1 Kings 17: 10-16 “The widow made a little scone from her flour and brought it to Elijah.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:
Ps. 146 “My soul, give praise to the Lord.”

SECOND READING:
Heb. 9: 24-28 “Christ offered himself only once to take the faults of many on himself.”

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:
Mt. 5: 3 “Happy the poor in spirit, the kingdom of heaven is theirs.”

GOSPEL:
Mk. 12: 38-44 “The poor widow has put more in than all who contributed.”

SCRIPTURAL TOPICS:
Generosity; Giving; the Kingdom of Heaven; Poverty; the Poor in Spirit

FOCUS: “The poor widow has put more in than all who contributed.” True giving and spiritualness comes from the heart and from our need rather than from our surplus.

REFLECTION: “If we do not see abundantly present in ourselves the fruits of love, peace, joy and meekness, of humility and simplicity and sincerity, of faith and long-suffering, then we have laoured without profit and in vain: for the purpose of our labour and toil was to gain these fruits. If the fruits of love and peace are not in us, then our entire labour has been useless and in vain. Those who toil in such a way, on the judgement day will prove to be like the five foolish virgins who were called foolish because they did not have in the vessels of their hearts the spiritual oil.” Theophane the Recluse

“At last the period of vexatious searching passes; the fortunate seeker receives what he has sought. He finds the heart and establishes himself in it with his mind before God, and stands before Him unswerving like a faithful subject before the King, receiving from Him

CONCLUDING RITE:
Dismissal:
November 15, 2009

First Reading:
Daniel 12: 1-3 “At that time your people shall escape.” There will come a time of great distress. Then the wise shall shine brightly, and those who lead others to virtue will shine as stars.

Scriptural Topics: Assembly; Vigilance; Son of Man; Refuge; Salvation; End times.

FOCUS: Be watchful and pray constantly so that you will be ready when the Son of Man returns, and you will be ready for your death.

Reflection: “Every real Christian must always remember and must never let himself forget, that it is indispensable for him to be united with Our Lord the Saviour in his whole being; to let the Lord dwell in his mind and heart, and to begin to live according to His most holy life. The Lord took our flesh, and we must take His flesh and His all-holy Spirit, accepting them and holding fast to them for ever. Only such a union with Our Lord will give us that peace and good-will, that light and life which we lost in the first Adam, and which are now renewed within us by the second Adam, the Lord Jesus Christ.”

Bishop Justin Martyr

“What are God’s servants but his minstrels, who inspire our hearts and stir them to spiritual joy.”

St. Francis of Assisi

“Your hand upholds the universe, your love gives rest to the world.”

Cyrillic

Applying the Readings to the Liturgy: The liturgy is full of short prayers that can be repeated with continuing attention and effect. Let the liturgy teach you to pray.

Opening Prayer: See alternate Sample General Intercessions—

Introduction: My dear sisters and brothers, we are gathered to celebrate the mystery of our salvation in Jesus Christ. Let us ask God our Father who loves us to hear our prayer:

- We praise and thank you, God, for all of Your Creation;
- For all who have dedicated themselves to God, may He help them to be faithful to their promises;
- For peace among nations, that God may strengthen us to rid our hearts of anger and pride;
- For the aged who suffer from loneliness and infirmity, that we will sustain them by our love;
- With Your grace, may we be a community of persons whose lives reflect love, service and praise to Your glory;

Preface: Third for Sundays in O.T.

Concluding Rite—Prayers over the People: First, fourth, or sixteenth

R.C.I.A.

How can you pray constantly? When you pray, shut your eyes for a moment and try to concentrate your spiritual powers. If you get tired, raise your eyes to the icon or the lighted candle. Concentrating on prayer this way, the heart will find within itself that spiritual warmth which comes from Christ himself and fills one’s whole being with peace and joy.”

St. Seraphim of Sarov

Children’s Liturgy of the Word

Prayer is talking with God. Sometimes we talk to Him without words, just thinking about him, being in his presence. Listening to him. Loving him. Doing what he wants us to do.

The Liturgy Planner • www.TheLiturgyPlanner.org

FIRST READING: Dan. 7: 13-14
“As I watched in the night visions, I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps. 93
“The Lord is king, he is robed in majesty.”

SECOND READING: Rev. 1: 5-8
“To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, and has made us to be a kingdom and priests to serve his God and Father - to him be glory and power for ever and ever! Amen.”

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:
Mk. 11: 9b-10a

GOSPEL: Jn. 18: 33b-37
“Pilate then went back inside the palace, summoned Jesus and asked him, Are you the king of the jews?”

SCRIPTURE TOPICS: the Kingdom of God; Christ the Redeemer

FOCUS: “He will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, so that God may be all in all.”

REFLECTION: “The kingdom of heaven is within you. Insofar as the Son of God dwells in you, the kingdom of heaven lies within you also. Here within are the riches of heaven, if you desire them. Here, O sinner, is the kingdom of God within you. Enter into yourself, seek more eagerly and you will find it without great travail. Outside you is death, and the door to death is sin. Enter within yourself and remain in your heart, for there is God.” St. Ephraim of Syria

“Christ the King” - Theophane the Recluse

“...When God reigns in us, when the Kingdom of God is within our hearts, we will give to God the things that are God’s and to ourselves the things that are ours.”

“...In that way, the Kingdom of God will be within you always, and God will be your Master, and will always be your Father.”

“...The Kingdom of God is our own, and all things are a gift of God.”

“...The Kingdom of God is within you always, and God will be your Master, and will always be your Father.”

Children’s Liturgy of the Word

God wants us to be loving. To feed the hungry, to give drink to the thirsty, to welcome the stranger. How can we do this? St. Thérèse of Lisieux wanted to be a missionary, to go out and feed the hungry. But she was unable to do that. So she found a way to please God: in being kind and loving to everyone around her in small ways, she expressed her love of God and His children.

R.C.I.A.

In today’s gospel reading, Jesus is once again telling us what He expects of us: What we do for the least of His children, we do for Him. He is telling us to love, to be kind, to be generous. To love.
