

Cycle C – Fall 2019

September 8 – 23rd Ordinary Time

What does it take to be a disciple of Jesus? A couple of weeks ago, we learned it takes discipline, a word derived from the same Latin root, disciplina, which means teaching or instruction. A new school year has just begun for many of us. What an appropriate time to act as a student, eager to learn what it takes to follow the Lord.

Gathering Song: You are just, O Lord, and your judgment is right; treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

Alaben Todos: Sal 148

1st Reading: Wisdom 9:13-18b: Our choices in life are timid compared to God's choices for us.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 90:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 14, 17
In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

2nd Reading: Philemon 9-10, 12-17: Paul baptizes a slave and then expects the slave's master to accept the slave as a brother.

Gospel Verse: Let your face shine upon your servant;
and teach me your laws.

Gospel: Luke 14:25-33: Do you want to be a disciple? Renounce everything else, with no reservations, no regrets.

September 15 - 24th Ordinary Time

We may have just been here last week, but maybe it's been many weeks, or even many years. No matter how long it's been, we can be assured that God is eager to welcome us back, today or any time. As we prepare to celebrate the Eucharist together, let us call to mind those times when we have strayed from God's embrace and thank God for the assurance of reconciliation.

Gathering Song: Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you that your prophets be found true. Hear the prayers of your servant and of your people Israel.

Question of the Week: How can I imitate the father in Jesus' parable? Whom can I welcome back?

September 22 – 25th Ordinary Time

As summer turns to autumn, many of the Gospel selections we hear concern themselves with the Last Judgment. Our worthiness for eternal life in heaven can be indicated by the way we treat each other and the way we handle our possessions. As we celebrate today's Eucharist, let us reflect on whether we are using our wealth for the benefit of others or if our pursuit of wealth is blinding us to the needs of our neighbor.

Gathering Song: I am the salvation of the people, says the Lord. Should they cry to me in any distress, I will hear them, and I will be their Lord for ever.

September 29 - 26th Ordinary Time

The days are growing shorter and the weather is getting cooler. Soon it will be time for the harvest. As disciples of the Lord, we are called to assist in a special harvest. We hear Paul call Timothy today to “pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.” Wise words for us as well. As we celebrate the Eucharist today, let us pursue these virtues so that what we harvest will be good and holy.

Gathering Song: All that you have done for us, O Lord, you have done with true judgment, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

October 6 – 27th Ordinary Time

Today, on Respect Life Sunday, we hear Jesus use the image of the mustard seed. The mustard seed is tiny – not much larger than a grain of sand – yet, when planted and nurtured, grows into a large, strong tree. It takes time, though. As we look around today, let us ponder how all of us were once the size of a mustard seed, but now, loved and nurtured, we have grown in body, soul, and spirit.

Gathering Song: Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

October 13 - 28th Ordinary Time

As we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, let us not forget that the word "eucharist" means "thanksgiving." The Greek word eukharistia is used to describe what Jesus did before sharing his body and blood at the Last Supper. Today, as always, we give thanks to God for all the blessings we have received and continue to receive, especially for Jesus Christ, God's only Son, whom we receive in a special way today in the Eucharist.

Question of the Week: Do I receive the Lord in gratitude, here at Mass and at other times in my life? How can I change my attitude, to see what I have as blessings from God?

October 20 - 29th Ordinary Time

How do we pray? Do we only pray once a week when we come to Mass? Maybe once in a while when something important comes up? Or do we pray regularly and purposefully? Do we try to listen to what God is telling us? Do we find prayer helpful? Today as we celebrate Mass, let us think about how Jesus asks us to pray and pray that we may more closely follow his example.

What kind of attitude do we bring with us to Mass each weekend? Do we feel proud of ourselves for what we have accomplished this week? Or do we feel inadequate, sorry for all the times we've failed, aware of our human weaknesses? As we celebrate the Eucharist together, let us examine our consciences and recognize our need for God's mercy.

November 1 Solemnity of All Saints

We are all called to be disciples. Jesus asks us to put aside worldly ambition and reward and follow him. He challenges us to live out our faith and build the kingdom of God. Today we celebrate those men and women who truly became disciples of the Lord. We honor them for their faithfulness and heroic work. We pray to them to intercede for us. And we look to them as models as we try to more fully live out the call to be disciples ourselves.

Gathering Song: Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honor of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

Lectionary #668 OR 1011-1016

Days have grown significantly shorter, temperatures have become cooler, soon snow may be in the forecast. Leaves are falling from trees, crops have been harvested, plants are wilting and dying. It is only natural that we think about death. Yesterday we honored those holy people who lived extraordinary lives. Today we remember all those who have died, especially family members, friends, and others whose lives were extraordinary to us. We take comfort in our faith that in death, our lives change but do not end. See suggestions above.

Question of the Day: How do I picture the entire communion of saints, the Church? How does realizing that I am united with those who have died comfort me?

November 3 31st Ordinary Time

During November, we remember those who have died. Over the last two days we have celebrated All Saints Day and All Souls' Day, honoring those whose lives have been holy and recalling all those we love whom we have lost. For God, however, no one is truly lost, no one is dead. All are alive in God. Let us mourn for our loss, yes, but let us find comfort in knowing that our God of life is stronger than death.

Gathering Song: Forsake me not, O Lord, my God; be not far from me! Make haste and come to my help, O Lord, my strong salvation!

November 10 - 32nd Ordinary Time

During the month of November, we call to mind those who have died: friends, family, members of this community. November also brings the end of the church year. For both of these reasons, today's readings focus on death. But more importantly, they also affirm the resurrection. We are a people filled with hope, because we believe that death is not the end. As we celebrate Mass today, let our hope in eternal life comfort us as we recall our beloved dead.

November 17 - 33rd Ordinary Time

Today we will hear of horrifying signs that may portend the end of the world: earthquakes and famines, wars and persecutions. Even though these warnings were given two thousand years ago or more and the world has not yet ended, they can still spur us to action now. As we celebrate Mass today, let us look at our lives and consider what we should change and then resolve to do so now.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Christmas is still a month away, but you wouldn't know it if you turned on the television or walked into a department store. But here and now we celebrate a very different holy day and listen to a passage from the other end of Luke's Gospel. "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom," the criminal executed with Jesus asks. Let us resolve today, no matter the distractions, to set our eyes on the kingdom of heaven.

Thanksgiving Day

For many of us, it is easy to look at our lives and the world around us and find numerous things to be thankful for. For some of us, though, who have been touched by tragedy or misery, it is difficult. No matter our current state, let us all find comfort in our loving God, the source of all good gifts, especially the gift of Jesus, whose birth we will begin preparing for in a matter of days.
